Villa Antibes

Located in a sought-after area of Antibes, this 210 m² detached villa offers a privileged living environment on a 1,500 m² wooded plot. Built in 1975, it combines charm and modern amenities for optimal comfort. The house has four spacious and bright bedrooms. The living room, with large openings, opens onto a large terrace with a clear view of the landscaped garden. The modern and equipped kitchen completes this friendly living space. Outside, the carefully maintained garden features a swimming pool surrounded by greenery as well as a relaxation area under a pergola. The south-west exposure ensures ideal sunshine throughout the day. This villa benefits from quality services, including double glazing for better thermal and acoustic comfort. A garage and several parking spaces complete the property. Ideally located, the property offers quick access to shops, schools and beaches while guaranteeing calm and privacy.
